

SYMPOSIUM ON FOREST SCIENCES 2010 – CALL FOR PAPERS

Date: Thursday, November 4, 2010

Place: Tieteiden talo (Kirkkokatu 6), Helsinki

The Finnish Society of Forest Science invites oral and poster presentations for the Symposium on Forest Sciences 2010. The main topic is Biodiversity and sustainable use of forests.

Session 1. Who still cares about forest biodiversity - topics of biodiversity research in the 2010s

Session 2. Biodiversity as an economic opportunity

Session 3. Methods for estimating biodiversity

Session 4. Environmental aspects in everyday forest harvesting operations

Abstract submission

Submit your abstract by e-mail to the contact person of the session (see below). Download abstract template from the website of the Society. Deadline for abstract submission is August 31, 2010.

Contact persons

Session 1. Secretary of the Forest Biology club Tuomas Aakala, tuomas.aakala@helsinki.fi

Session 2. Secretary of the Finnish Forest Economics Forum Marjo Maidell, marjo.maidell@indufor.fi

Session 3. Secretary of the Finnish Forest Mensurationists club Antti Mäkinen, antti.makinen@simosol.fi

Session 4. Secretary of the Council on Forest Operations and Technology Veli-Pekka Kivinen, veli.kivinen@helsinki.fi

Registration

Registration begins in August 2010 and will be announced on the website of the Society. Registration is free of charge.

More information

- Call for papers and the program on the website of the Society <http://www.metsatieteellinenseura.fi/>, see Ajankohtaista and Tapahtumat
- Vice chair of the Society, Director Anssi Niskanen, anssi.niskanen@metsakeskus.fi, tel. 020 722 8203
- Secretary of the Society, Ph.D. Riitta Väänänen, riitta.vaananen@metla.fi, sms@helsinki.fi, tel. 010 211 2144